INVESTIGATION:
R/D was assigned to investigate an aggravated battery to police officers in the 007th District. R/D met with Officers Thiry & Jesse. The following is a summary of their statements and should not be considered verbatim.

Officers stated that they were on routine patrol in uniform in a marked squad. Officers stated that they were driving in the area of [REDACTED] when they observed a male black, kn [REDACTED] loitering in front Extra Value Food & Liquor store. Officers continued on their patrol and approximately 15-20 minutes later again observed [REDACTED] loitering in front of the liquor store. Officers exited their vehicle and began to approach [REDACTED] for the purpose of conducting a field interview. [REDACTED] began to shout at the officers and back away from officers. P.O. Jesse brought [REDACTED] to vehicle and was trying to conduct a protective pat down when [REDACTED] started pulling his arms toward the front of his pants, waist area. Officers were trying to prevent [REDACTED] from getting to the front of his pants. [REDACTED] refused all verbal direction from officers. P.O. Jesse was trying to hand cuff [REDACTED] when [REDACTED] used his elbow to strike P.O. Jesse on the right side of the face. [REDACTED] continued to swing his arms and kick at both officers. P.O. Thiry pulled his taser and dry stunned [REDACTED] with little effect. [REDACTED] grabbed at the wrist of P.O. Thiry that held the taser. [REDACTED] pushed P.O. Thiry to the ground. P.O. Thiry sustained scraped knees, tearing his pants, scraped hands and injured his shoulder. Responding units arrived and assisted officers into taking [REDACTED] into custody. [REDACTED] was transported to the 007th District for processing. CFD personnel arrived and treated the officers on scene. A subsequent custodial search by P.O. Shamah recovered a small zip lock bag of a green leaf substance, suspect cannabis which was inventoried # [REDACTED] and sent to Crime Lab.

On 27 Jan 2012 at 1755 hrs., R/D advised [REDACTED] of his Miranda rights in the 007th district lockup. [REDACTED] stated that he wanted to speak with R/D. [REDACTED] stated that he and his Auntie went to the beauty store and then he went to check on his taxes. [REDACTED] stated that the officers grabbed him for no reason. [REDACTED] stated that he was trying to tell the officers that his arm hurt. [REDACTED] stated that he told the officers " I have lots of respect for you, I'm not gonna make you feel bad". [REDACTED] stated that he put his hands on the squad car and that the officer grabbed him by the neck. [REDACTED] stated that he told the officer to "please calm down" and the officer tased him for no reason. [REDACTED] stated that he was going to tell the officers about the weed but that he never got the chance.

ET Manguerra responded to the 007th District and took photos of the officer's injuries. R/D contacted personnel at the Extra Value Food and Liquor store to inquire if video was available. R/D was notified that the only person who could download and access the video was off until the following day.

On 28 Jan 2012, R/D met with Adel Munasser of the Extra Value Liquor store. Munasser provided R/D with a copy of the surveillance tape. R/D reviewed the video which shows part of the incident. The video shows [REDACTED] fighting with officers. The video was inventoried # [REDACTED]

R/D then contacted the Felony Review Office of the State Attorney's Office. ASA Anastasia Harper reviewed the facts of the case and approved 2 counts of Aggravated Battery to a Peace officer on 28 Jan 12 @ 1837 hrs.
